Customer Reviews

What a wonderful comfort read! A warm collection of Christmas themed historical romances by some very gifted writers. All of these stories evoked a sense of sweet small town nostalgia. I particularly loved the story entitled "Substitute Bride". Just the right amount of mystery, romance, and providence. I look forward to reading a series featuring these charecters.

A collection of lighter reading with Christmas themes. I like the variety of settings happening around the US and different time periods. Some of the stories seem to wrap up quickly and are somewhat unrealistic in timelines, but this happens frequently with novellas where it's difficult to delve too deep. They are an entertaining easy read. Worth the $0.99.

What a lovely grouping of stories about Christmas themed towns. These stories are quick reads, but well done with faith woven neatly into each one.
