Please, note that groups all the books in the series together and lists them as "different editions". If you need any, I would recommend using the ISBNs to look for them (they are listed at the editors online shop: http://www.cornelsen.de/erw/reihe/r-4530/ra-8115/titel/back_link/search) and add them to the cart. I bought several items from the series (Kursbuch, Vokabeltaschenbuch, Testheft, DVD and CDs) and had no trouble using the ISBNs to get the correct item. Just note a few things about the items in this series:- The Kursbuch does come with a CD but only with the exercises from the "Ubung" part (exercises to work on what was learned) and the Modelltest. If you want to work on the book completely on your own (or want to go over it again), you may need to buy the CDs to get all the audios (lessons, exercises and model test).- The Sprachtrainingbuch (workbook) comes with a CD and this one does include all the audios of the workbook.- Note that there are two versions of the Kursbuch: one with the whole book and 12 lessons (A2 Gesamtband) , the other with the book divided in two parts (A2 Teilband 1 and A2 Teilband 2), each with 6 lessons. Be sure to check what you need and the ISBN for that.

It is a good book, but I felt very frustrated when I realised that I needed to buy an audio CD which was not included. When you read "book and CD", you imagine you have it all. What you have is a good book, some videos on the CD, but you are missing all the exercises where you should be listening to conversations and answering questions. It may have been a bit more expensive to buy, but I would have preferred to have the lot in one go. Apart from that, I recommend the book if you have a good teacher to guide you through.

The book is very good and suggested for exams. But i m very much unhappy with the packing. its tightly packed and the books are bent so much. Im not sure if they are new ones.

this is only the second half of the actual book and it comes up as the first choice when one asks for the "sprachtraining" book
