The Legend Of Sleepy Hollow: A Radio Dramatization (Colonial Radio Theatre On The Air)

Synopsis

Ichabod Crane, a lanky, lean, superstitious school master, arrives to teach the children of Sleepy Hollow. As he vies for the attention of the lovely Katrina Van Tassel, his rival for her attention is the town rowdy, Brom Bones. Brom tries to scare Ichabod away with local superstitions and ghost tales. Soon enough the ill-fated schoolmaster encounters a terrifying legend come to life •The Headless Horseman of Sleepy Hollow. Meticulously adapted to stay true to the mood and flavor of the book Washington Irving is most famous for, this Colonial Radio presentation won the Charles Ogle Award for the Best Fantasy Production of 2005.

Customer Reviews

This is another masterpiece by Colonial Radio Theater. This is a lot of fun. My family loves it because the sound effects are perfect for the story. We listen to this all year round. Great family fun.

The legend of Sleepy Hollow is Washington Irvings masterpiece. It is a wonderful tale that is simply timeless. A Spooky quiet little town along the mighty Hudson is the home of Halloweens favorite spectre, The Headless Horseman. The Colonial Radio Theatre does a great job of letting Washington Irvings prose carry the story. They add just enough sound effects, fine acting, and superb music score to make this program truly a classic. I highly recommend this program, it will become one of your favorites.

My 7th grade class does a unit on "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" every year. I usually read it to them, but this dramatization was a welcomed break for my voice.

Audio- fun and spooky in audio. A short quick classic. Great for a popcorn night with friends around the campfire getting me in to the 'frame of mind' when I don my Halloween costume, etc.This is utterly fantastic!Thanks for delivering this item promptly, too.Aloha from Hawaii. :o)

This audio cd is awesome. More people should get these!
