mark twain was a big part of the printed developement of the "american language". as we listen to our old friends tom,huck and jim having new adventures,we rejoice in reliving parts of our childhood.as many of us know books on tom sawyer and huck finn are not only for children,but for adults wanting relive or re-examine their own childhoods. can you amagine flying along in a hot air balloon with your best friends and not having to answer to anyone? i enjoyed the discussions between these friends.this almost transcended all else.this is "tom sawyer abroad". in "tom sawyer detective" we catch a glimpse of tom's future as a potential attorney.the people at walt disney drew the same conclusions in"back to hannibal".huck finn becomes a journalist.jim works hard all his lifeas a free man.as long as their are rivers,woods and boys-tom,huck and jim will live within us.this spoken book is a testament to this.--richard-south georgia
