His Goode Thing (The Powers Book 1)

Synopsis

Determined to live life on her own terms, Terra Goode took a break from the church after moving out of her parentâ™s house. As the daughter of a Baptist deacon and a devout Sunday school teacher, she felt as if she was missing out on living the young, free and single life or as her parents would call it âœthe things of the worldâ•. When charming and rising street boss, Kane Powers meets Terra, he knows he wants her to himself. Toying with the idea of leaving his playboy ways alone for good, Kane is tempted when he runs into a former flame, Cassi that also has a budding friendship with his current love. When Terra felt moved to return to her faith, it seemed all hell broke loose with her relationship with Kane. Although Kaneâ™s love for Terra never wavered, Cassi came through for him when he needed a shoulder to lean on which led him to a compromising predicament. Will Kaneâ™s lapse in judgment be the demise of their relationship? Will Terra be able to move past Kaneâ™s mistake and agree to be his good thing?

Customer Reviews

This book was a good, clean story. I was very impressed by Terra's resolve to get her relationship between her and God back on track. I think Kane is a good guy but some of his decisions were wack. Overall I hope Terra and Kane get it back right. Waiting on book #2.

I would recommend this book to anyone that loves a good fiction novel, period, not just Christian fiction! I love that it's so relatable and realistic yet filled with the right amount of drama to keep you engaged and not wanting to put it down! Excellent read!!! Can't wait for part 2!!!
